NOTICE OF VARIATION IN THE PRICE OF KINGS LAW REPORTS

It would be observed that the prices on various covers of the Kings Law Reports have been varied from time to time as a result of rise in cost of production. This variation in cover prices are causing some problems in the marketing of the Kings Law Reports. It is for the purpose of eliminating this and other problems, that cover prices are no more being published with effect from 1997 vol 7 (pt. 53) and price will no more be based on those past cover prices.

For the avoidance of doubt and towards removing any accusation of illegal alteration of price against any of our agents, distributors or purchasers, we hereby declare all the past prices on the previous covers of the KLR invalid. The present price of the KLR has now been increased and may be further increased or reduced from time to time without any publication to that effect subject to existing economic and other conditions.
