ACTIONS - Fair hearing - Pre-action notice - Access to court and condition precedent - Definition - Constitutional right of access to the court - Does not preclude statutory regulations of how the right should be exercised (H3) Nigercare Dev. Ltd v. Adamawa State Water Board p. 1297

ACTIONS - Pre-action notice - Issue of - Has been settled in lots of decided authorities - As to its purpose and implication - Not being to restrict access to the court (H2) Nigercare Dev. Ltd v. Adamawa State Water Board p. 1297

APPEALS - Bail - Discretion - Affidavits - Shift in factual situation at appeal stage - That gives credence to the averment - That respondent is not willing to prosecute appellants - Will justify grant of Bail by Supreme Court (H5) Suleman v. COP Plateau State p. 1337

APPEALS - Motions - Place of first filing - Court of Appeal Rules - That provides for making some applications first at the High Court - Permits that they be filed first at Court of Appeal - In special circumstances as in this case (H1) Group Danone v. Voltic Ltd p. 1211

BAIL - Criteria - Court should follow in considering the application - Include inter alia, the nature of the charge - Likelihood of interfering with witnesses or evidence (H2) Suleman v. COP Plateau State p. 1337

CONTEMPT OF COURT - Order in issue - Validity of - Where the order is being challenged - Contempt matter should wait till issue of validity is settled - This is an exception to the principle - Of not hearing a contemnor till he purges himself of the contempt (H2) Group Danone v. Voltic Ltd p. 1211

COURT MARTIAL - Competence - Investigation of charge - As provided by ss. 123 & 124 of the Armed Forces Decree 1993 - Were complied with - Thereby clothing the court martial with jurisdiction (H1) Magaji v. The Nigerian Army p. 1249

COURT MARTIAL - Oaths - Record of appeal - Clearly shows that witnesses took oath - Appellant is bound by that record (H2) Magaji v. The Nigerian Army p. 1249

COURTS - Bias - Court or Tribunal should maintain independent and unbiased position - Too many questions asked by a trial court - That do not affect live issues - Will not necessitate appellate Court's interference (H7) Magaji v. The Nigerian Army p. 1249

COURTS - Discretion - Judicial officer - Is to arrive at a decision based on facts before him - And apply the applicable law - Judicial precedent rule need not be strictly applied where discretion is being exercised (H3) Suleman v. COP Plateau State p. 1337

COURTS - Issues - Suo motu raising of - The principle - Cannot preclude a Judge from applying principles - Not referred to by counsel - Or from having recourse to any relevant law (H5) Nigercare Dev. Ltd v. Adamawa State Water Board p. 1297

CRIMINAL LAW - Sodomy - Definition - Offence against the order of nature - Carnal knowledge and penetration - Have different meanings - Under sodomy, s. 81 Armed Forces Decree 1993 (H3) Magaji v. The Nigerian Army p. 1249

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE - Bail - Discretion - Granted the factual situation at the time appellants were arraigned - Refusal of bail by lower courts - Was a proper exercise of judicial discretion (H4)

Suleman v. COP Plateau State p. 1337

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE - Bail - Grant or refusal of the application - Discretion - Definition - Connotes acting according to the dictates of one's conscience - Action taken having regard to what is right and equitable (H1) Suleman v. COP Plateau State p. 1337

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE - Confessional statement - Definition - Voluntariness issue - Does not arise - Where the statement under consideration is not confessional (H6) Magaji v. The Nigerian Army p. 1249

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE - Sodomy - Proof - Apart from one hearsay evidence in this case - Other available evidence justify appellant's conviction (H4) Magaji v. The Nigerian Army p. 1249

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE - Victims of crime - Proof of offence against only one victim - Is sufficient to sustain conviction - And offence of sodomy in issue - Does not require corroboration statutorily (H5) Magaji v. The Nigerian Army p. 1249

DISCONTINUANCE - Leave - Notice of discontinuance - Where filed after action has been fixed for hearing - Trial court rightly ignored it - As leave was not sought and obtained - The action remains pending (H3) Umeonusulu v. A.G Anambra State p. 1373

FAIR HEARING - Violation of - Allegation that fair hearing was denied - Must be based on facts - Appellant's right to fair hearing was not violated in this case (H8) Magaji v. The Nigerian Army p. 1249

MOTIONS - Appeals - Ex parte order of injunction - Was rightly set aside by Court of Appeal - After due consideration of both parties' interests (H4) Group Danone v. Voltic Ltd p. 1211

MOTIONS - Appeals - Relief granted by Court of Appeal - Though not strictly as prayed - Circumstances of this matter - Necessitated the order that was made (H3) Group Danone v. Voltic Ltd p. 1211

PRACTICE & PROCEDURE - Discontinuance - Notice of - Filed on or after hearing date was fixed - Makes leave of court necessary - And trial court may grant or refuse the application - On terms as the case may require (H2) Umeonusulu v. A-G Anambra State p. 1373

PRACTICE & PROCEDURE - Originating process - Non-service of - Where not served on a party newly joined at his own instance - It is a mere irregularity - That did not occasion miscarriage of justice - And cannot affect trial court's jurisdiction (H1) Umeonusulu v. A-G Anambra State p. 1373
