EDITOR'S NOTE: More May, 2014 SC Judgments not ready at press time are to be published in a subsequent KLR Pt.

ACTIONS - Estoppel - Appellants' earlier suit in Customary Court cannot operate as issue estoppel - As there is material difference in evidence in that court - And the one proffered in the High Court (H4) Adeyefa v. Bamgboye p. 2049

ACTIONS - Estoppel - Decided issues - Issues once litigated upon should be regarded as forever decided - Except set aside by competent appellate court (H3) Adeyefa v. Bamgboye p. 2049

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW - Public officer - Dismissal - Authority - Under Decree 17 of 1984 - Military governor may direct the removal of public officer - Or may delegate someone to do so (H6) Utomudo v. Military Gov. of Bendel State p. 2223

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW - Public officer - Dismissal of appellant - Can be proved by oral evidence - As it is not every instruction by military governor to his subordinates - That must be in writing to render evidence on it acceptable (H5) Utomudo v. Military Gov. of Bendel State p. 2223

APPEALS - Action - Academic issue - Fate of - Where appeal has no practical value to appellant - Any judgment given in his favour - Will certainly render such appeal merely academic (H6) Ugba v. Suswam p. 2127

APPEALS - Fresh issue - Leave - Party wishing to raise fresh issue before appellate court - Must first obtain leave - Otherwise such issue is incompetent and liable to be struck out (H2) Usman v. State p. 2189

CHARGES - Plea - Conviction - Where accused pleads guilty and intends to admit all essentials of the offence - Court shall convict save in capital offence (H1) Nkie v. FRN p. 2073

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW - Constitution - Supremacy of - Constitution is the only instrument - Which is imbued with absolute power - To create and confer jurisdiction (H7) Ugba v. Suswam p. 2127

COURTS - Action - Ouster clause - By virtue of Decree 17 of 1984 - Courts have no jurisdiction to adjudicate on anything done - Or purported to have been done pursuant to the Decree (H1) Utomudo v. Military Gov. of Bendel State p. 2223

COURTS - Findings - Validity - Despite the slight mistake made by CA in re-evaluating the evidence - Decisions of both lower courts are not perverse - As to warrant interference of Supreme Court (H2) Adeyefa v. Bamgboye p. 2049

COURTS - Procedure - Irregularity in - Waiver - Applicants having acquiesced to taking of the preliminary objection - By court at the time it did - Cannot be heard to complain of any irregularity - Which they are a part of (H2) Ugba v. Suswam p. 2127

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE - Confession - Admissibility - Statement made voluntarily suggesting that accused committed the offence - Is relevant and admissible against him - Provided it was not obtained by threat (H3) Nkie v. FRN p. 2073

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE - Confession - Definition of - It is admission made by accused - Stating that he committed the crime - Which is object of the charge preferred against him (H2) Nkie v. FRN p. 2073

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE - Conviction - Circumstantial evidence - Must be direct and unequivocally lead to the guilt of appellant - As to sustain conviction (H4) Usman v. State p. 2189

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE - Conviction - Confession - Voluntary confession if fully consistent - And there is proof that crime has been committed by accused - Is satisfactory evidence (H4) Nkie v. FRN p. 2073

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE - Judicial precedent - Distinction - The alleged cocaine was not tendered in court in Stephenson's case - But in the instant case - The substance was tendered as exhibit A (H5) Nkie

v. FRN p. 2073

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE - Pending trial - Judicial precedent - Decision in Chime's case on continuation of pending suit - Is applicable to instant case - As there is no miscarriage of justice in the application of Decree No. 41 s. 6 (H1) Usman v. State p. 2189

ELECTION PETITIONS - Filing - NA election tribunal - 1st and 2nd respondents' petition before the tribunal is in order - Hence CA by 1999 Constitution s. 246 had jurisdiction to hear appeal therefrom (H3) Salik v. Idris p. 2095

ELECTION PETITIONS - NA elections - Final court - 1999 Constitution s. 246 (1)(b)(i) & (3) - Makes CA the final court in such election petition - SC lacks jurisdiction to entertain appeal therefrom (H4) Salik v. Idris p. 2095
