COURT OF APPEAL

Nwakalor v. Kalambe p. 921 CA

APPEALS - Election - Academic issue - Courts should not spend judicial time on such issue - But since the present appeal is being heard and decided before 29/05/2015 - It is not an academic exercise (H2) Daniel v. INEC p. 809

APPEALS - Fresh issues - Leave - Issues not considered and pronounced on by trial court - Are fresh issues that can only be heard by appellate court - After leave of the court is obtained (H1) CGG Nig. Ltd. v. Aminu p. 793

APPEALS - Grounds - CA Rules - Adherence to - Appellants having not been misled by content of the 1st & 2nd grounds - There has been substantial compliance with O. 6 r. 2(2)(3) of the Rules (H5) Akpamgbo-Okadigbo v. Chidi(2) p. 759

APPEALS - Issues - Formulation - Basis - Issues must be formulated from grounds - Which in turn must derive from the ratio decidendi of judgment appealed against (H6) James v. INEC p. 863

APPEALS - Jurisdiction - Court of Appeal - Jurisdiction of the court to entertain appeals is statutorily derived - And it is equally guided by its Rules (H1) Ikechukwu v. FRN p. 845

APPEALS - Jurisdiction - Fresh issue of - Can be raised for the first time in CA or SC - And there is no need to seek leave before raising it on appeal (H2) CGG Nig. Ltd. v. Aminu p. 793

APPEALS - Jurisdiction - Issues - Although CA has a duty to pronounce on all issues before it - But where the court decides that it lacks jurisdiction - It is unnecessary to consider other issues (H4) Ikechukwu v. FRN p. 845

APPEALS - Notice of - CA Rules O. 6 r. 2(1) - Every appeal shall be initiated through a notice of appeal - And any defect in it would render the appeal incompetent (H2) Ikechukwu v. FRN p. 845

APPEALS - Notice of - Signing - Iwunze v. FRN - Notice in criminal appeal must be personally signed by appellant - Save where circumstances warrant his counsel to discharge such duty for him (H3)

Ikechukwu v. FRN p. 845

COURT PROCESSES - Service - Jurisdiction - Where service is needed - Failure to effect same renders the proceedings void - As no court has jurisdiction where any of the parties was not served (H3)
CGG Nig. Ltd. v. Aminu p. 793

ELECTIONS - Action - Locus standi - Only a participant in primaries can complain of the outcome - But as appellant did not participate in the rerun primaries - He has no locus standi to institute the suit (H5)
Daniel v. INEC p. 809

ELECTIONS - Action - Mandatory injunction - 1st to 5th respondents' quest for the injunction in respect of election matter - Filed at HC instead of election tribunal - Is not maintainable in law (H3)
Akpamgbo-Okadigbo v. Chidi(2) p. 759

ELECTIONS - Appeals - Relief - Consideration of appellant's claim in view of his assertion in a primary he never participated in - Is a worthless exercise - Hence the CA decision is unassailable (H3) Daniel v. INEC p. 809

ELECTIONS - Gubernatorial - Jurisdiction - Proper forum to determine appellant's challenge of the return of 3rd respondent - Is the Governorship Election Tribunal (H3) James v. INEC p. 863

ELECTIONS - House of assembly - Jurisdiction - From the nature of the cause of action - 1st to 5th respondents' claim can only be maintained as a petition filed at the election petition tribunal (H2)
Akpamgbo-Okadigbo v. Chidi(2) p. 759

ELECTIONS - Primary election - Certificate of clearance - Import of the provisional certificate is that - Appellant could be excluded at the rerun primaries - As this is an internal affair of the political party (H1)
Daniel v. INEC p. 809

ELECTIONS - Primary election - Where complaint is on non compliance with political party's guidelines in the election - An aspirant may approach FHC or State HC for redress (H4) James v. INEC p. 863

ELECTIONS - Time - Sui generis - Time is of essence in election matters - Hence the delay of more than 3 months to raise appellant's complaint - Made the matter a post election one to be determined at the Tribunal (H5) James v. INEC p. 863

JURISDICTION - Determination - Basis - It is plaintiff's claim that would be considered - And where suit is commenced by originating summons - Averments in affidavit are considered (H2) James v. INEC p. 863

JURISDICTION - Fundamentality of - Once raised issue of jurisdiction must be resolved before further step is taken - As any decision reached without jurisdiction is a nullity (H1) James v. INEC p. 863

JURISDICTION - Objection - Determination - Basis - In suits fought on pleadings - Objection is resolved by examining plaintiff's claim - And in originating motion - Affidavit in support is considered (H1) Akpamgbo-Okadigbo v. Chidi(2) p. 759

LOCUS STANDI - Fundamentality of - It is the legal capacity to institute proceedings in court - And if plaintiff does not have locus standi - Court would have no jurisdiction to entertain the suit (H4) Daniel v. INEC p. 809

SUPREME COURT - Judgment of - Supremacy, s. 287(1) 1999 Constitution - Earlier decision same day - That nullifies a lower court's decision - Binds SC in a subsequent same day matter - That can no more be continuation of the nullified case (H4) Akpamgbo-Okadigbo v. Chidi(2) p. 759

ORDERS OF COURT - Non suit - Address of parties - Before the order can be made - Court must call on parties to address it on the propriety of making same - As failure to do so sets aside the order (H3) Nwakalor v. Kalambe p. 921 CA

ORDERS OF COURT - Non suit - Applicable laws - Before the order can be made by court - The Act establishing the court or rules governing its procedure - Must provide for the order (H2) Nwakalor v. Kalambe p. 921 CA

ORDERS OF COURT - Non suit - Condition for - It is made where it appears on the record that plaintiff's case has not wholly failed - And that in any case defendant would not be entitled to judgment (H1) Nwakalor v. Kalambe p. 921 CA
